Jill Pannell (Co-opted)

Jack Owen (Co-opted)

The Secretary, Betty Young, is a paid employee, who is not a Trustee.

5. Activities during the Year

The amount of the winter fuel grant this year remained at £225 per household for all eligible applications. Qualifying income levels were also unchanged at £255 (single) and £335 (couple). In total, 24 grants were made and a total of £5400 was given out. The George Day fund grant of £400 was given to Burham Primary School. There were 2 other grants of £100 paid during this year to residents for the relief of financial hardship.

Tony Ford sadly passed away and the trustee vacancy was taken up by Margaret Older. Suzanne Corbie resigned as our Secretary, and the Trustees thanked her for the good work. Betty Young was appointed Secretary to the Charity.
