

AYLESFORD, ECCLES, BLUEBELL HILL, WALDESLADE

JANUARY 22

Theft-Halfords, Mills road, Aylesford. A male entered the store and stole a scooter worth £100. He was wearing a David Beckham head band and left in a vehicle nearby. CCTV was available.

Theft of vehicle- Howick close, Aylesford. A resident parked his works vehicle on his drive overnight only to discover in the morning it had been stolen. The vehicle was full of wine and some bottles costing over £100.

Shoplifting- Sainsburys, Aylesford. A male wearing a tag and being monitored was seen by security de-tagging bottles of champagne. Security restrained the male who later was arrested.

Theft from motor vehicle- Richard corben way, Aylesford. Multiple works vans were broken into by damaging the locks. It is not known what has been stolen. A ripped off number plate nearby was found with fingerprints.

Criminal damage- Bull lane, Eccles. A resident called to say someone had fired a catapult at her window causing it to smash. No one was seen in the area.

Vehicle theft- Oaksdene, Walderslade. A caravan was stolen in Walderslade. A report was made and investigated.

Theft of fuel- Shell Cossington, Bluebell Hill. A quantity of fuel was stolen from the petrol station. CCTV was available.

Criminal damage- Shell Cossington, Bluebell Hill, Aylesford. A vehicle was damaged near the Shell station because staff told a male he could not park in their spaces. CCTV captured the whole incident.

Shoplifting- Smyths toys, Aylesford. A go-cart was stolen from the store. CCTV shows the whole incident.

ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

Two males in their 20s started shouting and fighting in the car park near Mcdonalds, Hermitage lane, Aylesford. Police arrived but they had already left.

Youths were firing catapults into trees near Queen Elizabeth Court, RBLV, Aylesford. Area is being monitored.

Nuisance youths were kicking a football at properties in London road east, Aylesford. Youths were identified and nearby parents spoken to.

PCSO A. Iantosca

Non emergency 101

Urgent calls 999